INAUGURATION OF NATIONAL WEBINAR

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Eluru, the district headquarters of Eluru district. Eluru is known for its historical background and it is a hub of educational institutions. Two decades ago opportunities for women to pursue higher education, beyond SSC were far from reality. The management of the parent institution, Sir C R Reddy College which has been in existence for the last 75 years felt a dire need for a college exclusively for women congenial to the students. The inception of Sir C R Reddy College for Women made wide open the opportunities of girl students in and around Eluru.

The College was initiated with the vision and mission of imparting knowledge to women and providing an opportunity to them for pursuing higher education. Since then by the determined efforts and support of the management, encouragement and guidance of several philanthropists and complete involvement and hard work of the faculty the College has carved a niche for itself in the field of education.

Responding to the changing needs of the present day, the basic disciplines were multiplied into a range of subjects. The courses and programs are being re-organized, preparing and training the students to face the modern societal challenges so that they can compete with vigour and confidence when they step out of the College.

The College has been offering major groups in both Commerce and Science with important combinations. Courses offered in our college at intermediate level are MPC, BiPc, MEC and CEC. at UG level - 9 combinations are offered in B.Sc., and 2 combinations are offered in B.Com., including computer science.

At P.G. level M.Sc. organic Chemistry, is being offered. Above 2000 girl students are pursuing various courses here. The science labs and English language lab are fully equipped. There are about 250 computers with internet facility for the usage of students. The Hostel is located within the campus and so the students can make the best use of their labs & library. Research is a logical and systematic search for new and useful information on a particular topic. Research has to be active, diligent and systematic process of inquiry in order to discover, interpret or revise facts, events, behaviours and theories.

Research can be done in a systematic way by following the number of steps. The steps included are the study of concept, methods of experiments, noting down the observations in each and every step of experiment, analyzation of results, comparison of the results with previous experiments held by others, conclusion with proofs and graphs.

The important aspect of doing research is to give information to present people in a easy way with developed technology. Generally we have two types of research methods, we can explain the methods in two ways know as fundamental research and applied research.

The research on problem, involves different stages like selection of research problem, collecting data related to the problem to make literature survey, different methods of research to do experiments, different characterization techniques to analyse the samples like X-RD technique, FTIR, SEM & TEM for morphological studies, photoluminescence study, raman spectroscopy, electron paramagnetic resonance, optical absorption spectroscopy etc.

We can explain the characterization techniques and results with neat diagrams and graphs. Then compare the obtained results with previous results and analyse the characteristics.

Report

Research cell organized a two-day national webinar on “RESEARCH METHODOLOGY” on 18TH, 19TH November, 2022. K. Jhansi Lakshmi, IQAC Co-ordinator welcoming the chief guests.

Smt P. Sailaja, Principal, Sir C.R. Reddy College for Women, Vatluru shared her views on Research Methodology. Dr Ch. Swapna, lecturer in Zoology, Organising Secretary gave the theme of the webinar. Dr MBSV Prasad garu, secretary, Sir C R Reddy Educational Institutions conveyed his greetings to all the Resource Persons.

Dr P. Suresh Varma, Dean, Academic Affairs, AKNU, Rajamahendravaram gave his valuable speech about Research Methodology.

Research is a scientific investigation. Investigation means a search for new facts and ideas in any branch of knowledge. Thus, we can say that research is a search for knowledge. Research may be considered as a movement, a movement from the unknown to the known. It is actually a voyage of discovery. Research is carried out for two purposes; one is the discovery of new facts and the second, verification of the old ones. The object of every business organization, of course, is the discovery of new facts, new relationships, and new laws governing the business phenomena. But constant verification of the old concepts is also needed especially in a dynamic business environment.

Common sense knowledge, based on the accumulated experiences, prejudices and beliefs of the people is often contradictory and inconsistent. On the other hand, scientific observations are based on verifiable evidence or systematic body of proof that can be cited. For example, some common sense statements are: man is more intelligent than woman; married men remain happier than single people; rural people are more hardworking than urban people etc.

We are also grateful to the Dr B. Srinivas, professor, Dept of Economics, Faculty of Social Science, New Delhi, Jamia Millia Islamia University, Mrs M. Kamala Kumari, Principal, AKNU Kakinada Campus, MNV Prasad, Dept of plant sciences, University of Hyderabad, Telangana, P. Giri Babu, Associate Professor, School of Business Management, Gitam University, Vizag, P. Sandhya cole, Dept of Physics, Acharya Nagarjuna University, Nagarjuna Sagar, Guntur.

Mrs M. Kamala Kumari congratulated all the staff of Sir C R Reddy College for women for arranging this webinar.
