

Report of the Activity:

The Swachhata Hi Seva (Cleanliness is Service) program was conducted to honor Mahatma Gandhi's vision of cleanliness and to instill the values of hygiene and cleanliness among students and staff. The event aimed to spread awareness about the importance of maintaining a clean environment as a tribute to Gandhi's contribution to the nation.

Program Highlights:

1. Inaugural Ceremony:

- The event commenced with a brief address by the college principal, emphasizing the relevance of Gandhian values in contemporary society, particularly the significance of cleanliness and community service.
- Faculty members from the NSS, UBA, and representatives from Nehru Yuva Kendra delivered motivational speeches highlighting the role of students in maintaining cleanliness both in and around their community.

2. Campus Clean-up Drive:

- The primary activity of the day was a large-scale clean-up drive within the college campus.
- Over 250 students, faculty members, and volunteers actively participated in cleaning the surroundings of the campus.
- The participants were divided into teams, with each team responsible for cleaning specific areas, such as the playground, classrooms, and corridors.

3. Waste Management Awareness:

- An awareness session was organized on the importance of proper waste management, segregation of biodegradable and non-biodegradable waste, and the reduction of plastic use.

Closing Remarks:

- The program concluded with a vote of thanks by the event coordinators. The participants were encouraged to continue practicing cleanliness in their daily lives, making every day a Swachhata Hi Seva day in honor of Mahatma Gandhi.

Conclusion: The Swachhata Hi Seva program on Gandhi Jayanti was a meaningful tribute to Mahatma Gandhi's legacy. It not only highlighted the importance of cleanliness but also inspired the participants to take ongoing initiatives towards maintaining a cleaner and greener environment.

