Ragging is too curbed in all educational institutions. As part of Sir C R Reddy College for women conducted awareness program on Anti-ragging on 23-09-2024 at 2:00p.m to 4:00 p.m in PG Seminar Hall, with the welcome address i.e. inviting the dignitaries on the Dias. First of all the introductory speech was given by Y.Swathi ,Coordinator of Anti Ragging cell told that no case was registered as far in our college with regard to ragging. Then followed by the key note address of G.Sarala, Principal, that Ragging is a crime. At any point, it is not entertained in our college. Students are must and should follow the rules in the campus. If they fail to follow the rules, would lead to serve punishments under the act of law.

A speech by the Guest of Honor Smt. V.Kanthi Priya, Sub- Inspector of Women police station, Eluru elucidated the students that seniors should have friendly relations with juniors. Good interaction should take place among seniors and juniors; it should not lead to harassment or sufferings.

A speech by the Guest of honor Sri.B.Madhu Venkata Raja Sub- Inspector of cyber cell police station, Eluru, addressed with students about cyber frauds and cybercrimes is a serious problem in our digital world, where criminals use computers and the internet to commit illegal activities. It is essential to learn about cybercrime to protect ourselves and stay safe online.

A speech by the Chief Guest Sri.M.Subba Rao, Circle Inspector of Women Police Station, Eluru, told students that student life is important turning point in everybody's life. He quoted many good examples from movies and practical cases of the solved in real job life. So, never think of the word ragging and be part of the campaign to curb the ragging completely in this society.

At last Felicitation was done to the Guest of honor and to the Chief Guest by the dignitaries on the dais. Finally vote of thanks was given by Smt. B.Tejaswini, Member of Anti-Ragging Cell to all the participants who attended the program and made it successful.
